Business:

1. Review of August 2013 Meeting Minutes. Minutes approved.
2. Section Financial Report – Nick Powers, Section Treasurer, reported on the financial state of the Section.
3. Dana Herberholz, Section Chair, extended congratulations to Jordan Stott, winner of this year's Section scholarship. Good job, Jordan!
4. Dana Herberholz expressed thanks to those who contributed to the October 2013 issue of The Advocate, particularly Chris Cuneo, Kennedy Luvai and Jennifer Pitino. Dana also discussed the need for contributors to the next Section-sponsored issue of The Advocate – sometime between May 2014 and March/April 2015. Need approximately five articles from Section members.
5. Dana Herberholz led a discussion on possible ways to spend the Section's current excess budget balance.
6. Dana Herberholz issued a call for CLE presenters, presentations or referrals for a possible "Software and IP" CLE, as well as general bar and CLE events.

7. The date of the next meeting was announced – December 19, 2013.
8. Chris Cuneo of Parsons Behle & Latimer presented a half-hour CLE entitled Is Software Patentable Anymore?
9. No other old or new business was discussed.
