

IDAHO LAW FOUNDATION

Helping the profession serve the public

IN THIS ISSUE

- ★ EDUCATING YOURSELF, BENEFITTING YOUR COMMUNITY
- ★ BECOMING A CITIZEN
- ★ INCREASES ON THE HORIZON
- ★ IDAHO STUDENTS LOVE THE LAW!

VOLUME III, ISSUE 2

APRIL 2017

CRAIG MEADOW'S PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE: MAKING EVERY DAY LAW DAY

Every year since 1958, the United States has proclaimed May 1 as Law Day, an annual opportunity to reflect on the importance of the rule of law in the lives of all citizens. Of course, the rule of law is part of our daily lives at the Idaho Law Foundation as we work to educate the public about the legal system and increase access to legal services not just on Law Day, but throughout the year. READ MORE

EDUCATING YOURSELF, BENEFITTING YOUR COMMUNITY

You may have noticed the tagline included with some e-mails sent from the Idaho Law Foundation: Your support of Law Foundation CLE programming provides the necessary resources to fulfill the Foundation's goal of enriching the public's understanding of and respect for the law and legal system. When you attend a Law Foundation sponsored CLE, not only are you keeping your legal education dollars in your own state, you are helping programs that serve the public interest. READ MORE

BECOMING A CITIZEN

With the prospect of change to the United States immigration laws, many immigrants who have been longtime, permanent legal residents have decided to become citizens. And Idaho Volunteer Lawyers Program, in partnership with other organizations, has been hosting free Citizenship Days to help these Idahoans apply for citizenship. READ MORE

INCREASES ON THE HORIZON

Since it is such a recent part of our history, most of us are intimately familiar with the story of the financial crisis that came to a head in 2008 and the long road towards recovery since then. But perhaps not as many know the impact this crisis had on IOLTA grants and, as a result, the programs that IOLTA funds support. READ MORE

IDAHO STUDENTS LOVE THE LAW!

On February 9, 70 students from Treasure Valley high schools gathered at Concordia Law School for the first ever 18 in Idaho Event, sponsored by Love the Law! The goal was to provide area students with an interactive program complete with small and large group discussions as well as student-led presentations on various topics featured in the 18 in Idaho publication, developed by the Law Related Education Program. READ MORE

VOLUNTEER SPOTLIGHT: REAL IMPACTS ON REAL LIVES

Andrew Jorgensen characterizes his first experience volunteering with Idaho Volunteer Lawyers Program as both challenging and rewarding. He believes that the services he was able to provide were worth the time he spent, both from the perspective of getting to work with a client he wouldn't typically see in his day to day job and because he was able to achieve a completely fulfilling outcome. READ MORE

THANK YOU TO ALL OUR VOLUNTEERS!

DONOR SPOTLIGHT: GENEROUS SUPPORT FOR FOUNDATION PROGRAMS

The Idaho Law Foundation continues to be grateful to District Bars, who are at the forefront of helping Idaho's legal profession provide services for the good of the public. Counted among the generosity District Bars have shown is a willingness to support Continuing Legal Education, Idaho Volunteer Lawyers Program, and Law Related Education. READ MORE

READ MORE

THANK YOU TO ALL OUR DONORS!

DONATE NOW

