

4TH DISTRICT BAR ASSOCIATION

6.1 CHALLENGE/LAW DAY 2016

INDIVIDUAL SELF-VERIFICATION FORM

The deadline for submitting completed forms is APRIL 1, 2016

Instructions: The 6.1 Challenge, named after Idaho Rule of Professional Conduct (IRPC) 6.1, is an event to encourage and formally recognize the pro bono service activities of members of the Fourth District Bar. IRPC 6.1 states that every lawyer has a professional responsibility to provide legal services to those unable to pay. A lawyer should aspire to render at least fifty (50) hours of pro bono legal services per year to persons of limited means or to charitable, religious, civic, community, governmental and educational organizations. The Fourth District Bar will recognize its members who have met the challenge of IRPC 6.1 by announcing the names of its members completing the 6.1 Challenge during a reception in the Spring 2016 and publishing this list on the website of the Idaho Law Foundation and in The Advocate.

To verify that you have met the 6.1 Challenge, complete the verification on the following page and send or deliver the completed form in one of the following ways:

VERIFICATION

Rule 6.1 of the Idaho Rules of Professional Conduct (IRPC) provides in relevant part:

Every lawyer has a professional responsibility to provide legal services to those unable to pay. A lawyer should aspire to render at least 50 hours of pro bono publico legal services per year. In fulfilling this responsibility, the lawyer should:

(a) provide a substantial majority of the 50 hours of legal services without fee or expectation of fee to:

- (1) persons of limited means or
- (2) charitable, religious, civic, community, governmental and educational organizations in matters that are designed primarily to address the needs of persons of limited means; and

(b) provide any additional services through:

- (1) delivery of legal services at no fee or substantially reduced fee to individuals, groups or organizations seeking to secure or protect civil rights, civil liberties or public rights, or charitable, religious, civic, community, governmental and educational organizations in matters in furtherance of their organizational purposes;
- (2) delivery of legal services at a substantially reduced fee to persons of limited means; or
- (3) participation in activities for improving the law, the legal system or the legal profession.

I verify that from April 1, 2015, to March 31, 2016, the undersigned performed at least 50 hours of pro bono legal services consistent with the principles of IRPC 6.1 set forth above.
