Pro Bono: It's Like Billable Hours For Your Soul

As you know, it is always a benefit for the ILF and ISB to tell the public how much pro bono service members perform. The Idaho Volunteer Lawyers Program (IVLP) would like to include the contributions of your colleagues who contribute pro bono hours to the work of Idaho Legal Aid Services in IVLP's official tally of pro bono service on the part of ISB members. Your acknowledging and thanking attorneys when they do pro bono work can inspire others to help. Knowing about pro bono service helps the profession and enables Bar leaders to speak confidently about the good work of ISB attorneys. If you would complete and return the form below reporting the number of hours and comments about the work, we will be able to do that.
