Article III of the LRS Rules: Membership in the LRS

The LRS shall maintain a file of attorneys listed by city. On the application for membership in the LRS, each attorney shall designate the areas of practice preference in which the attorney will accept referrals. To be admitted to membership in the LRS, an attorney must:

- Be a member of good standing in the ISB and regularly practice in Idaho;
- Certify that he/she is competent to handle all areas of law for which he/she applies;
- Have in effect, and continue to maintain, professional liability insurance in a minimum amount of $100,000 for the protection of clients;
- Agree to charge no more than $35 for the initial one-half hour consultation for clients referred by the LRS in all areas of law except personal injury and workers' compensation. Agree to provide the initial one-half hour consultation free of charge for clients referred by the LRS in the areas of personal injury and workers' compensation;
- Abide by all of the rules of the LRS including but not limited to: returning all referrals attorney is not able to personally assist back to the LRS, completing feedback forms in a timely manner, and;
- Agree to indemnify and hold harmless the ISB, its officers, members, agents, or employees from any or all claims, expenses, attorney fees and costs, liability or loss arising from or incurred through any negligence or intentional conduct of the attorney which cause damage, real or alleged, to anyone referred to attorney by the LRS. In addition, the attorney agrees to waive any and all claims against the ISB, its officers, members, agents, or employees for any or all claims, expenses, attorney fees and costs, liability or loss arising from the operation and policies of the LRS including, but not limited to, referral or non-referral of a person or client, denial of or removal from panel membership, and provision of information about the attorney to any person or the clients.

By signing this registration, I indicate my wish to join the Idaho State Bar Lawyer Referral Service and I agree to abide by the LRS rules.
