

DRAFT: 1964 CIVIL RIGHTS ACT: FIFTY YEARS OF PROGRESS

Possible dates: Thursday, October 30, or Thursday, November 6, 2014

Prime Sponsor: ISB Diversity Section

Possible Co-sponsors: Employment and Labor Law Section; Litigation Section; UI College of Law.

Draft Schedule and possible locations: UI Water Center, downtown Boise; Hotel 43
Luncheon location: Chandler's; Cottonwood Grille.

Seminar Speakers and Schedule:

8:00 AM Registration
 8:30 AM Introductions, Welcome
 8:45 AM Keynote speaker: Todd S. Purdum, contributing editor, Vanity Fair; and senior writer, Politico. Author: An Idea Whose Time Has Come: Two Presidents, Two Parties, and the Battle for the Civil Rights Act of 1964.
 9:45 AM Discussion/Questions to Mr. Purdum.
 10:15 AM Break
 10:30 AM Employment Litigation under Title VII of the Act
 Employment Law Section Participant; Diversity Section Participant; Idaho Human Right Commission Participant; Including Q&A
 11:45 AM Break for Lunch
 12:00 PM Luncheon and Access to Justice Award presentation
 (Suggested sites above)
 1:30 PM Ethical Dimensions of Practicing with the 1964 Civil Rights Act
 Former Dean, now Professor Don Burnett
 2:30 PM The View from the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission
 Guest from Seattle or San Francisco Office (Two possibilities are likely)
 3:30 PM The Act and Other discrimination challenges
 A view from the Bench: Chief Judge Lynn Winmill; Magistrate Judge Candy Dale; Ninth Circuit Judge Randy Smith.
 4:30 PM Adjourn

Cost of the Seminar: UI as a co-sponsor would defray the cost of the site, if possible.

The luncheon cost would be built into the cost of the seminar and extra tickets at $30.00 each would be available for purchase; The Section would be responsible for lunch for the award winner and speakers ($300 approx.). The Section would be responsible for Mr. Purdum's travel and per diem, hope that he would come without a speaker's fee or we might get another sponsor, such as Idaho Public Television or BSU Radio to co-sponsor with us for this.

Those costs would be about $1,000.00 for travel/per diem. Administrative costs from the Bar for the registration and materials.

Cost to participants: Regular cost for 5 hours CLE plus 1 hour Ethics (proposed), including $30 lunch: $150.00. Cost to Section members: $80.00 (we would hope that members of non-profit organizations, professors and others would join the section to obtain this rate).