- B. Elections. Cheri announced that the section will elect new officers in August; members are encouraged to consider running for office or nominating candidates.
- C. The section would apply for 3 CLE credits, including 1 ethics credit. They proposed a commitment of up to $2,000 by the section, to pay for half of the speaker fee ($1,000), half of the airfare (from Shofield, WI – about $250), one night of accommodations at Hampden Inn ($150), and half of the reception ($500). Concordia’s commitment would be to pay for half of the speaker fee ($1,000), half of the airfare ($250), one night of lodging ($150), and Mr. Anderson’s food and transportation. Emily and Jodi suggested a registration fee of $35 for section members and $50 for non-section members. Profits, if any, would be dedicated to a law student scholarship (Concordia Scholar Society). Following discussion, Don Howell moved that this proposal be adopted as presented. Jill Holinka seconded the motion. Vote in favor of the motion was unanimous. Emily and Jodi were directed to take steps to implement the proposed plan, and to determine whether webcasting and/or videotaping would be feasible at Concordia and allowed by Mr. Anderson.
