Business:

1. Introductions of 2015 officers. Christopher Cuneo, Section Chair, read the names of recently elected officers of the Section.
2. Review of October 2014 Meeting Minutes. Motion to approve heard and seconded.
3. IP Section Financial Report.
4. Donation requests. Christopher Cuneo, Section Chair, led a discussion regarding donation requests from the ISB Diversity Section, Idaho Legal History Society, and Idaho Women Lawyers. Dana Herberholz, former Section Chair, noted that in previous years, all donation requests were voted on at a single section business meeting once per year.
5. IP Section Scholarship. Christopher Cuneo, Section Chair, led a discussion regarding the scholarship award for 2015.

6. Call for volunteers to write articles for the Advocate (roughly 4–6 articles are needed). A few members volunteered to write articles. Christopher Cuneo will find out when the articles are due.
7. Upcoming USPTO Regional Director Visit. Christopher Cuneo, Section Chair, noted that Russell Slifer, regional director of the Denver U.S. Patent and Trademark Office, will speak to the IP Section at noon on Feb. 24, 2015 and give a presentation on Patents and Trademarks to the public later that day at the Boise Library.
8. Call for volunteers from the ISB Young Lawyers Section to help present a CLE about Technology and the Law.
9. Phil McKay presented a CLE titled “The Practical Impact of Alice (The First 8 Months).”
10. No other old or new business was discussed.
