Idaho Young Lawyer Delegate to the ABA House of Delegates

At its 2015 Annual Meeting, the House of Delegates of the American Bar Association (ABA) adopted a proposal to provide for additional young lawyer delegates for delegations that do not currently have a young lawyer delegate to the ABA House of Delegates. Idaho qualifies for a young lawyer delegate.

The Idaho State Bar Board of Commissioners invites nominations of individuals interested in serving as the Idaho young lawyer delegate to the ABA House of Delegates. Qualified individuals will be an ABA member in good standing or will become an active due paying member upon appointment. The term is effective upon appointment and will expire when the 2017 Annual Meeting concludes. Thereafter, the term for this seat will be two years.

Individuals will have been admitted into his or her first bar within the past five years OR is less than 36 years old at the beginning of his or her term. Some financial assistance will be provided for traveling expenses; however, individuals will be responsible for a portion of costs associated with attendance at meetings of the ABA House of Delegates.

Letters of interest should be submitted by close of business, Friday, November 6, 2015, to dminnich@isb.idaho.gov.
