

RELIGIOUS FREEDOM SYMPOSIUM

“A Constitution ... is made for people of fundamentally differing views.” — Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes, dissenting in Lochner v. New York, 198 U.S. 45, 76 (1905).

“Nothing else in the great document, the Constitution [of the United States], is so important to this people as is this guarantee of religious freedom, because underneath and behind all that lies in our lives, all that we do in our lives, is our religion, our worship, our belief and faith in God.” — J. Reuben Clark, Jr. (1935).

- Why is religious liberty so important? How can we balance that liberty with other rights?
- What are the issues related to religious liberty in the United States? In Idaho? What is the current state of the law?
- What can we do personally to protect religious freedom?

Join us for our Religious Freedom Symposium, sponsored by both the Boise and Student Chapters of the J. Reuben Clark Law Society and located at Concordia University School of Law in downtown Boise on Friday, March 18, and listen as expert attorneys, legislators, and scholars address these vital issues.

When: Friday, March 18, from 1:00 p.m. – 4:30 p.m.
Registration begins at 12:30 p.m.

Where: Concordia University School of Law, 501 W. Front St., Boise, Idaho

Cost: $50 per attorney, or $125 for groups of five attorneys

Application for 2.5 CLE credits will be made. Brown bag lunches and other refreshments will be provided.

Presenters Will Include:

- Keynote Speaker Raul Labrador, United States Representative for Idaho's First Congressional District
- Eric Baxter, Senior Counsel for the Becket Fund
- Robin Wilson, Professor of law at the University of Illinois, Director of the Family Law and Policy Program, and architect of the Utah Compromise
- Senator Bart Davis, Senate Majority Leader, representing Idaho Falls
- An Interfaith Panel of local religious leaders
- And more.

Attorneys wishing to receive CLE credit should purchase tickets and register in advance HERE by Friday, March 11.

