

July 8, 2016

Thomas Dominick – Attorney at the pulpit

There certainly are many ways attorneys choose to benefit their communities. Take Thomas Dominick, for example. His service has included serving as an ordained Deacon at St. John's Cathedral, serving especially in St. Vincent DePaul, an organization devoted to helping the poor.

He also serves as a mentor and teacher and home visits and taking calls from the poor. His response in the attorney survey spoke volumes:

“Nothing really huge. Just many commitments,” he wrote in a survey of Idaho attorneys.

Mr. Dominick gives to St John's Cathedral, SVDP; Idaho Catholic Appeal; Idaho Food Bank; and the Salt and Light Radio.

The Idaho State Bar is engaged a campaign to raise general awareness of the good deeds and admirable qualities of Idaho attorneys, called “Lawyers Serve.” For more information, or to share your community service story, contact ISB Communications Director Dan Black at dblack@isb.idaho.gov

IDAHO STATE BAR