

June 24, 2016

Serving the Youth and the Faith Community

The spiritual needs of a community help drive the incredible generosity of David Parmenter of Blackfoot.

In his response to the “Lawyers Serve!” survey earlier this year, David shared some of the details of his community service. Last year, he served from six to 10 hours each month on community organizations including the Boy Scouts of America; Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints; and the Arts Council. He is a scout leader and participates in service of the church.

He also makes it his priority to financially contribute the organizations that promote the arts, education and religion.

David earned the Idaho State Bar Pro Bono Award in 1999. We congratulate David on his consistent generosity.

The Idaho State Bar is conducting a campaign to raise general awareness of the good deeds and admirable qualities of Idaho attorneys. For more information, or to share your community service story, contact ISB Communications Director Dan Black at dblack@isb.idaho.gov

IDAHO STATE BAR