Giving for Faith and Food

Kurt Schwab of Twin Falls finds inspiration in his volunteer time and donations to causes that help young people, those that are hungry and his faith community, the Church of Jesus Christ Latter-day Saints, (LDS). In his response to the Lawyers Serve online survey, he listed out his commitment as a mentor/ teacher for the Youth Challenge program that is sponsored by his church.

Kurt values the Idaho Food Bank and its mission to help curb hunger in the state. He also has concern for those who need legal services and cannot afford to pay. And like so many Idaho attorneys, he volunteers his time pro bono. These charitable acts sustain a sense of belonging and civic duty.

Mr. Schwab is a member of the Family Law Section. He works at Canyon Law PLLC.

The Idaho State Bar is engaged a campaign to raise general awareness of the good deeds and admirable qualities of Idaho attorneys. For more information, or to share your community service story, contact ISB Communications Director Dan Black at dblack@isb.idaho.gov
