

May 5, 2016

Grangeville attorney finds delight in giving

Jane Spencer is a consummate volunteer, clocking somewhere between six and 10 hours each month aiding the arts, healthcare and spiritual needs of the community. She has been a member or board member for Grangeville Arts, Grangeville Community Foundation, Syringa Hospital foundation, and her church.

Jane said in the Lawyers Serve! survey that she especially enjoys “helping to organize a summer concert series which brings community members to the park one night a week for a month to enjoy each other's company as well as listen to music.”

She also supports a community foundation that helps to support development of the arts, education, healthcare, social service, sports and spiritual needs of the community.

The Idaho State Bar is conducting a campaign to raise general awareness of the good deeds and admirable qualities of Idaho attorneys. For more information, or to share your community service story, contact ISB Communications Director Dan Black at dblack@isb.idaho.gov

IDAHO STATE BAR