Local Lawyer Recognized for Pro Bono work

Nov. 9, 2015

MOSCOW – Last year 750 Idaho attorneys reported volunteering 14,000 hours of free legal work for 2,100 low-income persons. A handful of those attorneys have been singled out by the Idaho State Bar for the Denise O’Donnell Day Pro Bono Award. Award winners were selected for their extraordinary time and effort to resolve legal issues for low-income clients.

Deborah McCormick, Moscow, represented a low-income mother in a custody case. Her work helped resolve a contentious matter and establish a stable home for the child. She was congratulated for donating 33 hours to resolve one aspect of the case, which was opened in May of 2013.
