Volunteer Efforts Earn Awards for Boise Attorneys

BOISE – The Idaho State Bar presented four Boise attorneys with the Denise O’Donnell Day Pro Bono Awards in November. Douglas Leavitt of Leavitt Law Offices, P.C., Anthony Pantera IV of Moore Smith Buxton & Turcke, Chtd., Krista Thiry of Bevis Thiry & Schindele and Nicholas Warden of Fisher, Rainey & Hudson. All four received the honor for donating hundreds of hours of advocacy in high-conflict cases that affected the clients’ well-being. The four were presented with their awards in November at the Idaho State Bar’s Resolution Meeting in Boise.

Professionalism Award Goes to Boise attorneys

BOISE – The Idaho State Bar has awarded its Professionalism Award to Brad Andrews, Bar Counsel to the Idaho State Bar and J. Charles Blanton, retired, for their exceptional contribution to the profession. Mr. Andrews has distinguished himself in his collegiality and professionalism even while performing his duties enforcing the Rules of Professional Conduct for Idaho attorneys. Mr. Blanton was selected by the Idaho State Bar Board of Commissioners for representing clients over his 62 years as an attorney with consistent and passionate representation. The awards were given at the Idaho State Bar’s Annual Resolution Meeting in Boise.
