Robert Wetherell Selected Idaho State Bar President

BOISE – Boise attorney Robert Wetherell begins his term as president of the Board of Commissioners, the governing body of the Idaho State Bar. Mr. Wetherell grew up in Mountain Home and earned his law degree from University of Idaho College of Law. He now practices in Boise where he is Partner and Principal at Capitol Law Group. The group provides a broad range of legal services.

The Idaho State Bar (ISB) is a self-governing state agency of Idaho, which operates under power and authority delegated by the Idaho Supreme Court through its rule-making power and under statutory authority of the Legislature.

Its mission is to administer granting the privilege to practice law in Idaho; to control and regulate the legal profession; to protect the public from the unauthorized practice of law and from unprofessional conduct by members of the bar; to promote high standards of professional conduct; and to aid in the advancement of the administration of justice.

The Bar is governed by five commissioners, elected from Idaho's seven judicial districts. Commissioners serve staggered three-year terms.
