Volunteer Efforts Earn Award for CDA Attorneys

COUER D’ALENE – Two local attorneys who volunteered about 100 hours in a high-conflict divorce will be honored Thursday by the Idaho State Bar, which holds an awards presentation ceremony at noon, Nov. 6, at the North Idaho College Student Union Building. Receiving the Denise O’Donnell Day Pro Bono Award, are Sean P. Walsh, and Dennis Reuter both with Anderson, Palmer, George & Walsh, PLLC in Couer d’Alene. Their work helped a survivor of domestic abuse gain full custody of her two children. In 2013 more than 750 Idaho attorneys provided more than 15,000 hours of volunteer legal assistance to more than 1,600 low-income clients.

Professionalism Recognized in Award to CDA Attorney

COUER D’ALENE – The Idaho State Bar will also present its Professionalism Award to Coeur d’Alene attorney Stephen McCrea, who has distinguished himself in his legal work. He practices in the areas of commercial, bankruptcy, real estate, wills and probate. McCrea was nominated by his peers and selected by the Idaho State Bar Board of Commissioners. McCrea is a solo attorney practicing in Couer d’Alene.
