Idaho Lawyers Recognize Reginald R. Reeves

IDAHO FALLS – Reginald R. Reeves, a longtime humanitarian and community benefactor, has earned the Richard C. Fields Award. It was presented in August by the Idaho State Bar Professionalism and Ethics Section and Concordia University College of Law and the college’s professionalism and ethics orientation on Aug. 22. This award is given for attorneys who demonstrate a commitment to professionalism and civility in the profession. It is named after the Boise attorney Richard C. Fields, who was consistently recognized for his service, professionalism, and leadership within the Idaho State Bar and was known in the legal community as an advocate for civility in the practice of law. Reeves received the ISB Service Award in 2012.
