Medical malpractice cases are complex. This CLE will focus on a medical malpractice case from beginning to ending. At the conclusion, individuals will have a better understanding of how to properly evaluate the plaintiff's medical history; know who the defendants are; learn the most common cases; and how to work with medical experts. Join John W. Kluksdal of Hepworth, Janis & Kluksdal, Chtd., and Kevin J. Scanlan of Duke Scanlan & Hall, PLLC, as they lead this discussion and share best practices, tips for consideration and pitfalls to avoid.
