

STUART WALLER CARTY

February 6, 1944 - June 2, 2013

Stuart Waller Carty, 69, of Boise, Idaho, passed away on June 2, 2013, at St. Luke's Hospital in Boise, Idaho, after a courageous battle with cancer.

Born on February 6, 1944, in Cleveland, Ohio, to Colonel Douglas Felix and Miriam Rose Carty, Stuart was the first of five brothers and was greatly loved by them all. Stuart was preceded in death by his brother, Tate Lamar Carty, and he is survived by his wife, Martha Davis Carty; by his parents, Colonel Douglas F. and Miriam Carty; by brothers Douglas F. Carty Jr. (Becky), Matthew King Carty (Karen), and Warren Austin Carty (Mausty); sisters-in-law

Susan Parker (Bill), Karen Decosimo (Nick), and Lisa Brown (Scott); brothers-in-law Mike Davis (Patsy), Matt Davis (Julie); and many nieces and nephews.

Stuart graduated from General H. H. Arnold High School in Wiesbaden, Germany, and he received his B.A. Degree from the University of Tennessee in 1967. While at the University of Tennessee, Stuart was in the ROTC and graduated as a 2nd Lieutenant. He served four years as an Air Force Officer at Travis Air Force Base during the Vietnam War. After his tour of duty, Stuart returned to the University of Tennessee where he completed his law degree in 1974.

In 1968, Stuart married the love of his life, Martha Davis of Signal Mountain, Tennessee. After completing his law degree, Martha and Stuart moved to Boise, Idaho. He was employed by the State Attorney General's Office and later went into private practice with Chip Houst and Rick Dredge. He was currently practicing at Carty Law.

Stuart practiced before state and federal courts and was a member of Idaho Trial Lawyers, American Association of Justice, National Rifle Association, Safari Club of America, Full Gospel Business Men Fellowship and Discovery Church (formerly known as Boise Valley Christian Communion Church).

Stuart and Martha were avid hunters. They loved hunting big game in and around Riggins, Idaho.

They traveled the world in pursuit of wild game while making lifelong friends wherever they went.

Stuart never met a stranger and his life was full of love and laughter.

The great loves of his life were his wife, Martha, his family, the many spiritual children he mentored, and his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Funeral Services will be held at Discovery Church 1177 N. Roosevelt Boise, Idaho on Friday, June 7th at 10:00am. A reception will follow in the fellowship hall. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to your favorite charity .
