Presenter: JJ Winters

JJ Winters is an attorney who has represented the Idaho Department of Lands since 2021. She first represented the Department of Lands through the Attorney General's Office and has since moved to in-house counsel roll within the agency. Ms. Winters has a deep understanding of Idaho's state-owned public land system. Ms. Winters works with the agency to accomplish the Department of Land's goals to maximize long term financial benefits to the state's endowment land beneficiaries and care for the state's natural resources. Ms. Winters frequently works with the Department's timber, forestry, fire protection, real estate and land use leasing, minerals, navigable waterways and oil and gas programs.

Prior to her role with the Department of Lands, Ms. Winters was in private practice at a civil litigation firm and served as a law clerk for the Honorable George Southworth, from the Third Judicial District of Idaho. She is a graduate of the University of Idaho College of Law.
