LRS Panel Members must adhere by the standards and rules which can be viewed in full at https://isb.idaho.gov/wp-content/uploads/lrs_rules.pdf. This is a truncated version of the complete rules.

The LRS shall maintain a panel of attorneys listed by city and practice area. On the membership application each attorney shall designate practice areas in which the attorney is qualified and will accept referrals. Those attorneys choosing bankruptcy, high conflict family law and felony criminal matters, an additional agreement must be signed. To be admitted to membership in the LRS, an attorney must:

- Be a member of good standing in the ISB and regularly practice in Idaho;
- Certify that he/she is competent to handle all areas of law for which he/she applies;
- Agree to charge no fee for the initial half hour consultation for clients referred by the LRS ;
- Abide by all of the rules of the LRS including but not limited to: returning all referrals attorney is not able to personally assist back to the LRS, completing feedback forms in a timely manner, and;
- Agree to indemnify and hold harmless the ISB, its officers, members, agents, or employees from any or all claims, expenses, attorney fees and costs, liability or loss arising from or incurred through any negligence or intentional conduct of the attorney which cause damage, real or alleged, to anyone referred to attorney by the LRS. In addition, the attorney agrees to waive any and all claims against the ISB, its officers, members, agents, or employees for any or all claims, expenses, attorney fees and costs, liability or loss arising from the operation and policies of the LRS including, but not limited to, referral or non-referral of a person or client, denial of or removal from panel membership, and provision of information about the attorney to any person or the clients.

By signing this registration, I agree to abide by the complete LRS rules in addition to those listed here.
