Description: Join the Real Property section for a detailed discussion by Tayler Tibbitts, General Counsel for Empire Idaho Title & Escrow, about the Idaho's passage of remote online notarization legislation in Idaho and how the law affects notarizations.

About the Speaker:

Tayler Tibbitts is an experienced real estate attorney and commercial title and escrow professional. He founded Empire Title & Escrow's commercial real estate group in 2015, closing commercial transactions and developing a reputation as a problem solver focused on serving his customers.

After a stint operating his own law firm practicing real estate law across the state of Idaho, Tayler has returned in the role of general counsel and commercial department manager at Empire. He has been legal counsel to buyers, sellers, real estate agents, property management companies, investors, developers, and lenders. With this array of experience, he is well-equipped to help you and your clients successfully buy, sell, finance, or develop their commercial property.
