2022 Idaho State Bar Annual Meeting CLE Session Information

Thursday, July 21 - CLE Session 1 - 9:00 - 10:45am

Millennials Rising: This Ain't Your Parents Legal Profession - Shoshone Falls - The legal industry is undergoing seismic change. Millennials are moving into law firm, corporate in-house, and public-sector leadership positions against the backdrop of a landscape that has been fundamentally redefined by COVID, a shifting regulatory framework, and intense new competitive pressures. Fueled by one of the tightest labor markets in decades, the "Great Resignation" of the last two years has tested the historically slow-moving legal industry's ability to adapt and make the changes needed to attract and retain talent. What motivates the next generation of lawyers? What are the best firms and legal employers doing right and wrong? How can you position your firm, practice, or organization for success? (1.5 CLE Credits)

Thursday, July 21 - CLE Session 2 - 11:00 - 12:00pm

Discrimination Based on Gender: Reconciling Bostock in a Rapidly Evolving Workplace - Perrine Falls - In this CLE program, current practitioners will discuss legal protections for transgender employees under Idaho and federal, current litigation around bathroom use and other transgender issues, and best practices for employers with transgender employees. (1.0 CLE Credits)

Expert Disclosures: The Good, The Bad and The Ugly - Auger Falls/Twin Falls - A civil practitioner's detailed guide to withstanding a motion to exclude experts in state court. The presentation will specifically address the issues that might preclude expert testimony based on the court's scheduling order, timing of the disclosure, the qualifications of the expert and the specific requirements of I.R.C.P. 26(b)(4)(A), as well as the role of supplementation. The presentation will also address when the opportune times are to file a motion to exclude opposing counsel's experts. (1.0 CLE Credits - NAC)

Thursday, July 21 - CLE Session 3 - 1:30 - 3:00pm

From Alston to NIL to Future Employment? Recent Legal Developments in College Athletics Governance - Auger Falls/Twin Falls - This presentation will provide an overview of developments in the law surrounding the governance in college sports, specifically as it relates to the current standing of the NCAA's amateurism requirements following the Supreme Court's 2021 decision in NCAA v. Alston. Along these lines, this presentation will cover the Alston case and its aftereffects, including the NCAA's rule changes allowing athletes to profit off of their names, images, and likenesses and pushes for courts and/or the National Labor Relations Board to find college athletes to be employees of their schools and/or the NCAA under federal wage, hour, and labor law. (1.5 CLE Credits)

Promoting Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Belonging in Your Organization - Perrine Falls - In light of the ISB membership's vote to adopt proposed IRPC 8.4(g), this session will include a discussion on common challenges to promoting a diverse and inclusive environment in the legal profession, and best practices to overcoming those challenges in individual workplaces, the courtroom, and beyond. The session will include an interactive workshop component in which presenters will have participants work through common hypotheticals of challenging workplace and courtroom scenarios. (1.5 CLE Credits)

Thursday, July 21 - CLE Session 4 - 3:15 - 4:45pm

Lessons from the Masters - Shoshone Falls - Join this unique panel of Idaho judges and lawyers who have sworn an oath to upon becoming a member of the bar and upon taking the bench and have also made a vow to their lawyer/judge spouse. This distinguished panel will share insight, tips, and memorable stories of their exalted legal careers, their commitment to the legal profession and their journey of being "married to the law." (1.5 CLE Credits including 0.5 Ethics - NAC)

Friday, July 22 - CLE Session 5 - 8:45 - 10:15am

Forensic Meteorology: Revealing Weather-Related Truths - Shoshone Falls - You've seen a meteorologist predict the weather on TV...but did you know a meteorologist could potentially help your legal case too? AccuWeather Forensics specializes in reconstructing the weather at particular time and place...see how their team uses the latest science to reveal weather-related truths to legal cases. (1.5 CLE Credits)

Friday, July 22 - CLE Session 6 - 10:30 - 12:00pm

Recent Cases on Ethics and Common Questions to Bar Counsel - Auger Falls/Twin Falls - Retired bar counsel Brad Andrews will join our new bar counsel Joe Pirtle for a discussion of practical ethical issues important to your practice. The program will provide you with an engaging discussion involving ethical issues and common questions to Bar Counsel's Office. (1.5 Ethics Credits)

Appellate Mediation - Perrine Falls - The presentation will cover mediations on appeal to the Ninth Circuit, including the new pro se litigant pilot program, along with options for mediating appeals in the state court. (1.5 CLE Credits - NAC)

Friday, July 22 - CLE Session 7 - 1:00 - 2:00pm

Bankruptcy for Beginners: The 10 Things EVERY Lawyer Should Know - Auger Falls/Twin Falls - Bankruptcy is a highly-specialized field of law, but one which nearly every client may face at some time of the lives, either as a debtor or creditor. This session will provide some basics of a bankruptcy case, from both a debtor's and creditor's perspective. We will also discuss some common cross-overs, such as family law, criminal law, and personal injury law, etc. This session is a great introduction for those who don't know anything about bankruptcy, and a refresher for those who know just enough to stay out of it! (1.0 CLE Credit)

Introduction to Tribal Law - Perrine Falls - This introduction, or refresher course, will explain what every attorney should know about federal and tribal laws when contracting or dealing with Idaho's five sovereign tribes. (1.0 CLE Credit)
