2024 Idaho State Bar Annual Meeting CLE Session Information

Thursday, July 18 - CLE Session 1 - 9:00 - 10:45am

Media Relations and Obstacles When Your Case Makes National News - Pioneer Room - With a 24/7 media cycle, your case may explode overnight into a media frenzy. Small towns in Idaho have had this happen all too frequently in the past few years. Public interest in true crime, trends, or politics may result in reporters chasing down a story about your case asking you to be ready to speak at a moment's notice. Wendy J. Olson will address the specific ethical rules that govern what lawyers can legally and ethically say to the press. Incorporating the IRPC, this program will cover permissible statements both in and out of the courtroom, on and offline, and will touch on how you can respond to unfair adverse publicity. (1.5 CLE Ethics Credits - NAC)

Thursday, July 18 - CLE Session 2 - 11:00 - 12:00pm

Media Relations and Obstacles When Your Case Makes National News - JUMP Room - Whether or not you are ready for the publicity from a high-profile case, there are certain aspects of media relations that every attorney should know how to manage. This panel discussion will provide insight as to the role the media has in keeping the public informed as well as when you should not engage with the media, and how to handle negative, adverse publicity. (1.0 CLE Credits- NAC)

Thursday, July 18 - CLE Session 3 - 1:30 - 3:00pm

Deposition Strategies - JUMP Room - Effective depositions are the foundation of a successful case. Cases can be won or lost at the deposition stage. Join our seasoned trial attorneys as they examine the best strategies that will help you maximize the efficacy of your depositions and obtain compelling testimony for use at trial. (1.5 CLE Credits - NAC)

Legal Trends and the Use of AI - Pioneer Room - Artificial intelligence or "AI" is the hot topic for nearly all industries including the legal industry. While it may offer some innovations, it is fraught with legal issues. This session will focus on issues innate with AI including infringement on intellectual property and copyright and what every lawyer should be thinking about when assisting their clients who may be using AI in their work or business.. (1.5 CLE Credits - NAC)

Thursday, July 18 - CLE Session 4 - 3:15 - 4:45pm

Not Like on TV: Ethics in Law Dramas - JUMP Room - This session will review video clips from classic TV shows and discuss how the Idaho Rules of Professional Conduct are implicated. Joe also plans to discuss recent Idaho formal charge cases resulting in public discipline since the last Annual Meeting. (1.5 CLE Ethics Credits - NAC).

Friday, July 19 - CLE Session 5 - 8:45 - 10:15am

New Developments in Administrative Hearings in Idaho - JUMP Room - The recently created Idaho Office of Administrative Hearings has taken on the challenge of conducting contested case proceedings from most Idaho state agencies and presides over adjudicatory hearings, mediations, and arbitrations when requested by state agencies. This presentation will update you on how the OAH has standardized processes across Idaho agencies and their approach to their new role in hearing cases from the Idaho Department of Health and Welfare. (1.5 CLE Credits - NAC)

Navigating Office and Industrial Space Leases: The Basics and Potential Pitfalls - Pioneer Room - Office and industrial spaces leases can be daunting for those that do not practice in the real estate arena. This presentation will provide you with an overview of the current office and industrial market, as well as explain the best approach to follow when securing new space. Finally, the presenters will discuss the issues that may arise when clients forgo having an attorney negotiate a transaction and rely solely on commercial leasing agent or broker that is not required to disclose potential conflicts of interest. (1.5 CLE Credits)

Friday, July 19 - CLE Session 6 - 10:30 - 12:00pm

The Last Resort: Methods and Issues Regarding Debt Collection - JUMP Room - The presentation will be a discussion of the various methods and issues regarding effective and fair debt collection practices in Idaho, and offer tips and strategies for navigating the potential challenges of the multifaceted area of debts and debt collection. (1.5 CLE Credits - NAC)

Spotting Vicarious Trauma and Methods to Deal with It - Pioneer Room - Vicarious trauma, or compassion fatigue, is real and occurs over time when a person is exposed indirectly to the suffering of others for whom they feel responsible. High burnout, negative coping and isolation, and mental health impacts can be the result for many attorneys. Join the discussion on how to tell if you or a colleague are suffering and learn about positive ways of coping. (1.5 CLE Ethics Credits)

Friday, July 19 - CLE Session 7 - 1:00 - 2:00pm

Lessons from the Bench - JUMP Room - Join our distinguished group of Idaho jurists that make up the Idaho Court of Appeals. The panel will discuss best practices and tips for practitioners in preparing, briefing, and presenting appeals mixed in with memorable stories straight from the bench. (1.5 CLE Credits of which 0.5 is Ethics - NAC)
