Ad Copy Deadlines:

Refer to schedule on page 1.

Payment Terms:

- The publisher requires all new advertisers to prepay for their first display advertisement. Each subsequent ad placement will be billed after publication. For all returning advertisers, payment is due within 60 days from the invoice date.
- If an advertiser’s payment is 30 days overdue from the date of invoice, an initial notice will be sent. If an advertiser’s payment is 60 days overdue, the advertiser will be sent a final notice, after which the advertiser’s ad will be pulled from all future issues until all outstanding payments are made.

Terms and Conditions:

- The Idaho State Bar (publisher) reserves the right at any time to decline any advertising it feels to be inappropriate.
- Advertising is accepted in accordance with the rates, terms, and conditions set forth in the current rate card.
- The advertiser is responsible for notifying the publisher of any changes regarding the advertising copy or space contract no later than each ad copy deadline.
- Advertiser agrees to indemnify and hold the publisher harmless from any suits for libel, violation of right of privacy, plagiarism, copyright infringement, and all other claims arising from the advertising referred to in this contract. The publisher makes no independent evaluation of the content of the offers made in the advertising or of any product warranties made therein. Therefore, the advertiser agrees to indemnify and hold the publisher harmless from any suits arising from any representations made in the advertising. Because of the page flow, The Advocate cannot guarantee, or be held responsible for location of any ads on any given page.
- Publisher makes every attempt to print and mail The Advocate by the end of the first week each month; however, publisher does not guarantee date of printing, date of mailing, or date of receipt of any issue. Therefore, advertisers retain full responsibility for the placement of time-sensitive ad copy.
