

Minutes of the 1-16-19 noon Meeting of the Dispute Resolution Section

There were 10 voting members present by phone or in person during the Dispute Resolution Section Meeting held at the Idaho State Bar office upstairs conference room on 1-16-19 at noon. There was a quorum. There was voting and approval of the proposed budget and approval of Attorney Ron Shepherd of Meridian, ID as the new Chairperson. There was also approval that the other current officers and directors would continue to serve in their positions. Some who were present electronically or in person also voiced their approval by emailing Leslie K. Smith after the meeting.

Retired Attorney Stan Hafferman provided a Continuing Education Presentation on Labor Relations and ADR: A General Discussion. This presentation was about 40 minutes long.

Ron Shepherd also introduced himself to the group. Leslie K. Smith, the outgoing Chair person, conducted the meeting and now will be designated as the Past Chairperson.
