Section Chairperson Kim Coster, presiding

1. Welcome

Kim Coster, Section Chairperson, greeted the attendees and gave opening comments.

2. Reports

Sponsorship—Attorneys for Civic Education (ACE) Hilarity for Charity Event: This event is to be held on June 20 at Beside Bardenay. The event helps support ACE's mission of raising money for civic education programs. The Section held a drawing to give away five pairs of tickets (ten total).

Litigation Section CLE: Stephen Adams presented an overview of the civil appeals process in Idaho, as part of the Litigation Section's CLE series on the anatomy of a case.

Appellate Practice Handbook: A new edition will be released in October 2019.

3. Upcoming Events

All-Day Appellate Practice CLE: This CLE will be held on October 4, 2019, at Concordia University School of Law. The Section is assembling a slate of civil and criminal practice speakers. Registration will be available in July. A social hour will be held after the CLE at Boise Brewing. Those interested in getting involved with the CLE should contact Kim Coster at kcoster@sapd.state.id.us.

Member Meetings: There will be no member meeting in September. The next member meeting will be on December 12, 2019.

4. Other Business

Teresa Baker with the Idaho State Bar reminded the Section members of the upcoming Annual Meeting, to be held on July 24-26, 2019. Ms. Baker also informed members that the Idaho Academy of Leadership for Lawyers would be accepting applications in August.

5. CLE

Ken Jorgensen and Kale Gans from the Idaho Attorney General's Office presented a 30-minute CLE on their experiences arguing Idaho v. Garza before the United States Supreme Court.

6. Adjournment

Upon the conclusion of the CLE, the member meeting was adjourned.
