(c) Method of posting bond. The bail bond required above under subsection (b) of this rule, or any other bail bond set by a judge, may be posted, and a receipt given therefore indicating thereon the time and place for appearance by the defendant, in any of the following manners:

(1) Cash bail bond. By depositing an amount in cash equal to the bail bond.

(2) Checks and money orders. By depositing a cashier's check, money order, or a personal check payable to the clerk of the court under such procedures as shall be established by the administrative district judge or where acceptance of the personal check has been approved by a magistrate or district judge.

(3) Surety bail bond. By depositing, in lieu of cash, a bond or bond certificate which guarantees payment of the amount of the bail bond in the event the person charged fails to appear when required by the court.

A fidelity, surety, guaranty, title or trust company authorized to do business in the state of Idaho and authorized to become and be accepted as sole surety on undertakings and bonds may execute the written undertakings provided for in these rules, which may be accepted by the person receiving the bond without prior approval by a judge unless otherwise ordered by the administrative judge of the judicial district.

(4) Property bail bond. By depositing a property bail bond of property owners for the amount of bail, as provided by law. (This method may be used only if a magistrate approves and accepts the bond.)

d) Bail for violation of municipal or county ordinances. Bail for the above described offenses defined by municipal or county ordinances which are similar to those described in this rule shall be in the same amounts as provided above.
