AARON J. TOLSON
(Client Assistance Fund Payment)

On October 5, 2026, the Idaho State Bar Board of Commissioners entered an Order that concluded Aaron J. Tolson engaged in Dishonest Conduct by refusing to refund an advance payment of fees that he had not earned or incurred, as required by Rule 1.16 of the Idaho Rules of Professional Conduct. The evidence showed Claimant paid Mr. Tolson $8,535 to file a chapter 12 bankruptcy. At the time, a United States Bankruptcy Court Order precluded Mr. Tolson from filing chapter 12 bankruptcies. Mr. Tolson did not file a bankruptcy on Claimant's behalf and did not return Claimant's money. The Board concluded Claimant suffered a loss in the amount of $8,535 due to Mr. Tolson's Dishonest Conduct and ordered Claimant be reimbursed that amount from the Client Assistance Fund.
