JON R. COX
(Suspension)

On October 30, 2026, the Idaho Supreme Court entered a Disciplinary Order suspending attorney Jon R. Cox from the practice of law in Idaho for one year, effective March 1, 2027.

The Idaho Supreme Court Disciplinary Order followed a stipulated resolution of an Idaho State Bar formal charge disciplinary case. The formal charge matter related to Mr. Cox's criminal conviction in 2025 with misdemeanor driving under the influence of alcohol, excessive alcohol concentration under Idaho Code § 18-8004C(1). The discipline matter did not involve Mr. Cox's representation of a client. The Idaho Supreme Court found that Mr. Cox violated Idaho Rule of Professional Conduct ("IRPC") 8.4(b) [commission of a criminal act that reflects adversely on the lawyer's fitness as a lawyer], by receiving his fourth conviction for driving under the influence in Idaho over a span of twenty-one years. A pattern of repeated offenses, even ones of minor significance when considered separately, can indicate indifference to legal obligation.
