Grant Burgoyne - Biography

Senator Grant Burgoyne has been a member of the Idaho Legislature since 2008 (House of Representatives 2008 – 2014; Senate 2014 – present). He has served in legislative leadership (House Assistant Minority Leader 2012 – 2014; Senate Minority Caucus Chair January 2015 – 2016, Senate Assistant Minority Leader 2020-present), and presently serves on the Legislative Council, the Joint Millennium Fund Committee, the Idaho Criminal Justice Commission and the Idaho Supreme Court’s Guardianship and Conservatorship Committee. He also serves on the following standing Senate Committees: Commerce and Human Resources, Judiciary and Rules, and State Affairs.

Senator Burgoyne is also an attorney with a part-time alternative dispute resolution and litigation practice. He has over 30 years of experience litigating, arbitrating and mediating employment, civil rights, commercial, personal injury, insurance and other cases. His past affiliations include practice with Mauk & Burgoyne where he was the Managing Partner from 1997 to 2013, and service as an adjunct professor of employment law at Boise State University (2002 – 2007). He presently serves part-time as an Adjunct Professor at the University of Idaho College of Law.

Senator Burgoyne received his Bachelor of Arts from the University of Idaho and his Juris Doctor from the University of Kansas. He is a member of the Idaho State Bar and the Idaho Trial Lawyers Association. He has lectured and written widely on legal topics, and is a co-author of the Idaho Employment Policies Handbook (Idaho Law Foundation, 1998; rev. eds. 2001, 2012).
