

Idaho State Bar - Environment and Natural Resources Section

Meeting Agenda

April 24, 2024, Noon-1:00pm

[Meeting in Person 800 W. Main St, Suite 1750, Boise, Idaho And via Zoom]

1. Introduction and Welcome (Riker)
2. Action Item—Approve March 27, 2024 Meeting Minutes (Riker)
3. Treasurer's Report (Riker)
4. Elections – Elections – Please send in nominations to Katy Riker, at kdriker@hollandhart.com. Of particular need this year, we need nominations for Chairman, Vice Chairman, and Secretary/Treasurer. These positions do require a bit more work but can be very rewarding! At-large officers are responsible for planning 1 lunchtime CLE per year, so it is a relatively light lift. You can self-nominate if you are interested in becoming an officer. Please watch for a link sent out by the Bar for voting.
5. Brief announcements (all)
6. CLE Presentation (introduction by Greg Adams): Legislative Round Up on Environmental Issues

Presenters:

Senator Rick Just: Rick Just is a native Idahoan who grew up on a ranch along the Blackfoot River. He worked for the Idaho Department of Parks and Recreation for 30 years, served on the Boise District BLM Resource Advisory Council for six years, and was the president of National Society for Outdoor Recreation Planners. He's the author of 13 books, mostly about Idaho history and writes a column on that subject for Boise Weekly. Rick is married to a former Environmental and Natural Resources section member, Rinda Just.

Representative Ned Burns: Born and raised in Twin Falls; graduate of Twin Falls High School (Class of '95); attended the University of Montana and studied business administration and accounting; served on the Sun Valley Board of Realtors Board of Directors since 2017, board president 2019; elected mayor of Bellevue 2018, reelected 2020; served on the Bellevue City Council, the Bellevue Urban Renewal Agency, and the Sun Valley Economic Development Board; avid skier, hunter, fisher, and recreational league hockey player; currently resides in Bellevue; spouse: Sara; one silly Pug named Jimmy.
