6. 1/2-hour CLE presentation by Ben Otto, Energy Associate with the Idaho Conservation League, on Rooftop solar power—balancing utility and customer interests. Background: The Idaho Public Utilities Commission recently issued two orders addressing Idaho Power's net metering program that defines the relationship between the utility and customers with rooftop solar. This CLE will address what led to these decisions, what the PUC ordered, and what the next step is to improve this program. Ben has represented ICL in most major utility regulatory proceedings in Idaho.
