

Idaho State Bar
Environment and Natural Resources Section

Meeting Minutes
March 25, 2020

1. Action Item: February 26, 2020 Meeting Minutes. The members in attendance voted to approve the draft February 26, 2020 meeting minutes.
2. Treasurer's Report. Kristina Fugate reported on the section financials through March 2020. Talasi Brooks suggested that an idea for the section to spend its current surplus funds is any causes that advance the legal profession in the times of COVID-19. Teresa Baker mentioned that the Idaho State Bar had a newly formed attorney well-being task force that is seeing what is available and planning activities for first week of May.
3. Update on COVID 19. Murray Feldman reported that no meetings would take place at the Idaho State Bar in March and the April meeting would likely take the same online approach as the March meeting.
4. Elections. Murray Feldman announced that elections were coming up for the three officer positions and the at-large member positions. He also announced that anyone interested in serving on the section counsel should let him know. The elections are planned to take place in April with the results reported in May.
5. Announcements. Marie Kellner announced that the Idaho Environmental Forum had postponed its March meeting until a later time to be determined.
6. CLE. Murray Feldman, current Environment and Natural Resources Section Chair, and partner at Holland and Hart, LLP, presented a forty-five minute CLE, titled "Ecological Succession of the National Forest Planning Regulations."