27

27

Beware of Blurred Lines

- City Employees often seek the City Attorney's guidance (advice)
- Sometimes as an attorney and sometimes as a friend
- Maybe they each vent their frustrations and criticisms of others
- Perhaps they agree that a situation, policy or practice is wrong
- Government Lawyer's job is difficult because it includes a duty to:
 - keep sight of their Client,
 - clarify their Role, & sometimes
 - suggest Private Counsel

State v. Martinez, 116 S.W.3d 385, 392–95 (Tex. App. 2003)

28

28

We Don't Represent Individual Members?

But we do represent the majority?

- City Attorney does not represent individual Council Members
- Representation of Ethics Board may be materially and directly adverse to interests of specific Council Members against whom complaint was filed, those Council Members are not clients of the City Attorney
- However, if ethics complaint(s) are against a majority of Council Members, and Council hires / fires the City Attorney, there might be a conflict (probably)

Supreme Court of Texas
Professional Ethics Committee
Op. No. 567 (Feb. 2006)

Clients on Emails w/ Opposing Counsel

▪ ABA 4.2: Lawyers should talk to Lawyers!

- In representing a client, a lawyer shall not communicate about the subject of the representation with a person the lawyer knows to be represented by another lawyer regarding the matter, unless the lawyer has the consent of the other lawyer or is authorized to do so by law or a court order.
- What about when a Lawyer CC's their Client on emails w/ Opposing Counsel?
- What happens when your City Manager emails a Developer & CC's the Developer's Lawyer?

30

Clients on Emails w/ Opposing Counsel

▪ ABA Formal Opinion 503 (Nov. 2, 2022):

In the absence of special circumstances, lawyers who copy their clients on an electronic communication sent to counsel representing another person in the matter impliedly consent to receiving counsel's "reply all" to the communication. Thus, unless that result is intended, lawyers should not copy their clients on electronic communications to such counsel; instead, lawyers should separately forward these communications to their clients
