IN RE: AMENDMENTS TO SECTIONS)
OF THE IDAHO BAR COMMISSION)
RULES (I.B.C.R.))
_____)

ORDER

The Board of Commissioners of the Idaho State Bar having presented proposed changes to the Idaho Bar Commission Rules (I.B.C.R.), and the Idaho Supreme Court having reviewed and approved the recommendations;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED that the I.B.C.R. as they appear in the Idaho State Bar Rule Book and on the Idaho State Bar website be, and they are, hereby amended to repeal and replace I.B.C.R. 229 with the following:

RULE 229. Military Servicemember and Servicemember Spouse Admission. In order to be admitted to practice law without taking the Idaho bar examination as a servicemember or spouse of a servicemember, an Applicant must show to the satisfaction of the Board that he or she:

- (a) Is identified by the United States Department of Justice as a servicemember or a dependent of a servicemember under the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act ("SCRA");
- (b) Is residing in Idaho due to the servicemember's military orders to the State of Idaho;
- (c) Has been admitted to practice law by the highest court in any state or territory of the United States or the District of Columbia;
- (d) Possesses the moral character and fitness required of all other Applicants for admission;
- (e) Has paid an application fee commensurate with the Experienced Attorney Applicant fee provided in Idaho Bar Commission Rule 203(c)(C); and
- (f) Is not limited in his or her right to practice in any state in which the Applicant is admitted.

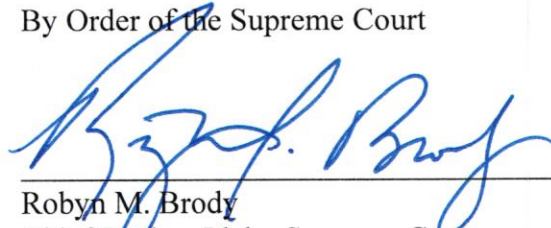

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that this order and these amendments shall be effective November 1, 2026.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that notice of this Order shall be published for three consecutive weeks on the Idaho State Bar's website and in The Weekly Brief email to Idaho State

Bar members, and that, as soon as practicable, a summary of the amendments effected by this Order shall be published in one issue of The Advocate.

DATED this 23rd day of October, 2026.

By Order of the Supreme Court
