  - Reviewed treasurer's report:
    - Currently $378.00 over our allowable "limit"
    - Discussed our membership count
      - 104 total members (85 attorneys and 19 non-attorneys)
- New Business:
  - Scholarship for IP Course Certification
    - Application deadline: February 20, 2020
    - Award: $1,000 (with maximum individual award of $500)
    - Announcement: April 16, 2020 (our next section meeting)
  - Scholarship for Idaho IP Law Student
    - Application deadline: February 29, 2020
    - Award: $1,000
  - 2020 ISB Annual Meeting
    - Location: Fort Hall, ID
    - Date: July 22-24, 2020
    - ISB accepting CLE proposals by February 21, 2020
      - Elizabeth Schierman and Kammie Cuneo plan to present
  - Invitations:
    - Utah IP Summit: February 21, 2020 in Salt Lake City, UT
    - STEPP (Stakeholder Training on Examination Practice and Procedure) Training Course: April 20-22, 2020 in San Juan, PR
      - Kammie Cuneo comments the course is educational and worth your time. USPTO does not give preference to the most senior applicants, so it is possible to attend.
      - Open call for volunteer(s) to present CLE, either to the IP section or to the Idaho State Bar at large (and IP Section would help sponsor)
- Good of the Order:
  - New USPTO Trademark rules, which include email address requirements (effective February 15, 2020)
  - Update on Concordia University Law School
- CLE Presentation:
  - Katy Weiser - "Managing IP at Institutes of Higher Learning"
- Adjourn
