

ISB Child Protection Section Meeting
October 28, 2022 // Noon – 1:00 p.m. via zoom

Want to win a copy of the legendary “Red Book”? We will be giving away, to one lucky attendee, a FREE copy of *Child Welfare Law and Practice, the gold-standard resource published by the NACC. How do you win it? Come to our meeting!! One lucky attendee will be selected at random to receive the book. Must be present to win.

AGENDA

1. Welcome
2. Minutes from September 2022 General Section Meeting
3. Treasurer’s Report
4. Old Business
5. New Business
 - a. Request for approval of donation
 - b. Membership Survey
6. Announcements
7. Presentation of October CLE – Melissa W. Bernier, LCSW – “Trauma Stewardship”
8. Red Book Drawing!

About our presenter: Ms. Bernier has worked in Child Welfare for over 20 years with experience in Psychiatric Adolescent Residential Treatment, Treatment Foster Care, Foster Care Licensing, Case Management and Safety Assessment, Clinical Practice, Supervisor and as a Clinical Director for a Behavioral Health Clinic in the Treasure Valley for over 10 years. She earned her Bachelor and Master of Social Work from the University of North Dakota and is currently a Doctoral Candidate at Idaho State University. Melissa is a national presenter, specializing in helping the helper trainings. Melissa is currently employed by the Family Resource and Training Center with Eastern Washington University in contract with the Idaho Department of Health and Welfare Child and Family Services Program as the Supervisor for the Child Welfare Workforce Training and Development team across Idaho.

Next Meeting: HAPPY HOLIDAYS! As is our tradition, our section will break for the holiday season and see you again in the new year, JANUARY 27, 2023, at Noon via Zoom.