Date & Time: December 11, 2018, 9:00 AM-1:00 PM

Location: Canyon County Public Meeting Room, Canyon County Administration Building, 111 N. 11th Street, Caldwell, Idaho

Number of Students: 20 students and chaperones.

Participating Schools: Skyview High School (Nampa), Caldwell High School, Borah High School (Boise), Capitol High School (Boise), Kuna High School.

Participating Judges, Attorneys: Judge Dayo O. Onanubosi, Randy Smith (Public Defender), Marcus West (Prosecutor), Ellie Somoza (Prosecutor), Kimberly Bratcher (Prosecutor), Leon Samuels (Boise City Attorney/Prosecutor), Hakim Hazim (Security/Criminality Consultant); Mikel Hautziner (Public Defender); Jason Williams (Public Defender); Barbara Ferre (Public Defender); and Marc Bybee (Public Defender).

Summary of Events: For its first ever Canyon County event, Love the Law! invited students to hear from Judge Dayo Onanubosi about his journey to the bench as well as to observe his courtroom and chambers. Afterwards, students were provided lunch from Pita Pit while listening to a panel of public defenders, prosecutors, and a non-attorney security/criminality consultant who provides consolation services to juvenile offenders for Canyon County. Panelists answered questions from the students and chaperones and share details about their chosen career paths and as well as the rewards of working as a legal professional in Idaho. The event concluded at approximately 1:00 PM.

- Being able to go to Judge O’s courtroom.
- Listening to everyone’s story (5).

What they liked least about the event:

- Would love to have more participants (students).

How we can improve the event:

- It would be great to do some sort of interaction between the students from different schools.
- Showing more about specific cases that attorneys work on (2).

- More hands on learning opportunities.
- Have more participants.
- Advertise more about LTL as I have never heard of the organization before.

Ideas for other LTL! events:

- Something specific to immigration.
- Something with more role-playing opportunities.
- Trial observation (4)
- Tours of courtroom facilities (2).

Other Comments:

- It was great! Thanks!
- Thank you!
- I really enjoyed having attorneys come in and talk about their job.
