

GLENN W. GODFREY, JR.
(Public Reprimand)

On October 6, 2017, the Professional Conduct Board of the Idaho State Bar entered an Order issuing a Public Reprimand to Eagle attorney Glenn W. Godfrey, Jr., based on professional misconduct.

The Professional Conduct Board's Order followed a stipulated resolution of an Idaho State Bar disciplinary proceeding in which Mr. Godfrey admitted that his conduct violated Idaho Rule of Professional Conduct 7.1 [Communications Concerning a Lawyer's Services].

This disciplinary case related to Mr. Godfrey's communications with Boise homeowners about their concrete foundations and his request to test those foundations. Mr. Godfrey visited multiple homeowners at their houses and misinformed them that he represented another homeowner in their neighborhood whose foundation was purportedly defective. Although some of the homeowners granted Mr. Godfrey's request to test their foundations, no homeowners retained Mr. Godfrey and no litigation resulted from any alleged defects in the homeowners' foundations.

The public reprimand does not limit Mr. Godfrey's eligibility to practice law.
