

Agenda

CLE: Adam Karp, lawyer who exclusively practices animal law throughout the States of Washington, Oregon, and Idaho, will be present on Judicially-Ordered Devocalization and Other Nuisance Law Anomalies: Examining Krein v. Szewc, 287 Or.App. 481 (2017).

About the speaker:

- Mr. Karp graduated from Gonzaga University with a B.A. Honors, and University of Washington with a J.D. and M.S. in statistics.
- This is Mr. Karp's nineteenth year actively practicing law.
- Mr. Karp estimates having evaluated and/or handled over 5600 animal law cases to date.
- Authored Understanding Animal Law, published by Carolina Academic Press, in October 2016.
- Mr. Karp cares for four cats, ages 7, 9, 10, and 22.

Business

1. Quorum to approve minutes from February, April, and June meeting?
2. Membership Update:
 - a. We have ___ attorney members and ___ non-attorney members.
 - b. Reciprocal membership – Ashley emailed International Law Section and Diversity Section
3. Wild Love Preserve – Andrea Maki – potential speaker
4. Updating the by laws?
5. Anything Else?