

Minutes to ISB Litigation Section Meeting

February 17, 2017

The Business meeting was called to order at approximately 12:00.

Clint Miner thanked authors who contributed to Advocate.

Clay Gill reported on the Trial Skills seminar.

This will be held March 3 and 4th at the federal court house.

Clay reported that they appear to have all the help they need right now.

They are trying to stay within $5000 budget.

Clint asked for the litigation section members to submit ideas for speakers who could present in the next couple of months at the litigation section meetings.

Kira Dale reported that the Litigation Section typically presents a CLE at the Idaho State Bar Annual Conference. This year it will be held in Moscow, Idaho. Sara Arnett is the President of the Employment Law Section and has asked the litigation section if we want to co-sponsor. Kira and Sara asked members to submit ideas on topics we could present on.

Leslie Hayes and Bryan Nickels presented a CLE entitled, "Having Money's Not Everything, Not Having it Is." This is a presentation on reducing litigation costs through the use of Rule 706 experts.

The Treasurer submitted a report in advance of the meeting, indicating that there is a balance of $36,248.00.

The meeting was adjourned at 1:00 p.m.
