

JOLENE C. MALONEY

(Suspension; Withheld Suspension; Probation)

On April 13, 2017, the Idaho Supreme Court issued a Disciplinary Order suspending Boise attorney, Jolene C. Maloney, from the practice of law for a period of 24 months, with 18 months of that suspension withheld. The Disciplinary Order also provided that if reinstated following her suspension, Ms. Maloney will be placed on probation for a period of three (3) years. Ms. Maloney's 6-month suspension from practicing law in Idaho will be from March 10, 2017, when she closed her law practice in anticipation of being suspended, through September 10, 2017.

The Idaho Supreme Court found that Ms. Maloney violated I.B.C.R. 505(b) [Criminal Conduct]. The Idaho Supreme Court's Disciplinary Order followed a stipulated resolution of an Idaho State Bar disciplinary case in which Ms. Maloney admitted she violated that rule. Ms. Maloney pled guilty to a felony charge of driving under the influence on January 27, 2017.

Following any reinstatement, Ms. Maloney will serve a three-year probation upon the terms of probation specified in the Order. Those terms include that Ms. Maloney will serve the 18-month withheld suspension if she admits or is found to have violated any of the Idaho Rules of Professional Conduct for which a public sanction is imposed for any conduct during the period of probation; she shall avoid any alcohol or drug-related criminal acts or traffic violations; she must continue to participate in her current treatment and counseling; she must, at her own expense, enroll in a program of random urinalysis testing; and she shall provide monthly reports to Bar Counsel attesting that she is compliant with the terms of probation.

Inquiries about this matter may be directed to: Bar Counsel, Idaho State Bar, P.O. Box 895, Boise, Idaho 83701, (208) 334-4500.