

PROFESSIONALISM & ETHICS SECTION

September 5, 2017

I. Call to Order by President Jodi Nafzger

II. Officer Reports

A. Chair

1. 1L Law School Orientation Programs. Programs for all three schools were held in August and overall were a success. Michelle Bartlett will be the point person for U of I going forward. Jim Dickinson will continue to be a liaison with U of I. Expenses will be in soon and a committee will meet to determine how much the section can contribute to the program.

2. Richard C. Fields Civility Award

3. Annual CLE-November 7th

Diligence and Communication-Ethical Responsibilities and Effective Caseload Management-Justice Robyn Brody

The program will be two hours, likely from 9-11 a.m. Larry Hunter made a motion that fee will be $35 for section members, $45 for non-section members, and $10 for law students. The motion was seconded by Jim Dickinson and approved by vote.

B. Vice Chair

1. Next Ethical Happy Hour

October 17, 2017 at the Stonehouse. We will play Cashcab. Julianne will talk to Catie about challenging the Young Lawyers Section.

C. Treasurer

1. Financial Update

We are in good shape but membership is a little low.

D. Secretary no update

E. Other-Brad Andrews, Rule 8.4g draft will go to the Board for consideration on Friday. Brad will present to the Natural Resource Section later this month.

Jason Spillman will be presenting our next CLE

III. CLE – Bob Aldridge, *The Practical and Ethical Issues of Dealing With Persons with a Developmental Disability

IV. Adjourn