REASONABLE ACCOMMODATIONS PHYSICAL IMPAIRMENT VERIFICATION

Form B and accompanying documentation must be submitted with a completed Form A to the Idaho State Bar.

This form must be completed by a licensed professional with specific expertise in this area.

Idaho Bar Commission Rule 214(a)(4) defines physical impairment as a disorder or condition or anatomical loss affecting one or more of the body’s systems. The Idaho State Bar requires current documentation (within the last five years) from a licensed professional with specific expertise in the field related to the applicant’s impairment to be included with a request for reasonable testing accommodations. Please note: If the impairment is related to a mental impairment (e.g. learning disorder, attention deficit/hyperactivity disorder, etc.) Form C or D must be completed.
