

Idaho State Bar Taxation, Probate, and Trust Law Section
and the
Boise Estate Planning Council

Invites you to

The Modern Trust: The Art of Properly (and Effectively) Passing and Receiving Wealth

by

Richard Oshins, J.D., LL.M, M.B.A.

Richard is a member of the Las Vegas firm Oshins & Associates, where he concentrates in tax and estate planning. Richard is also an advisor and consultant to many of the largest financial institutions in the U.S. He received his J.D. from St. John's School of Law, his M.B.A. degree in taxation from the University of California at Berkeley, and an LL.M. in taxation from George Washington University School of Law.

Richard has lectured extensively on innovative tax and estate planning strategies and has authored numerous articles focusing on hot topics, emerging issues, and trends pertinent to practitioners in the field of estate planning and taxation.

Attendance to this event is offered at no-cost to Tax Section and BEPC members. Non-members may attend for a cost of $75. The event will be webcast for those wishing to view the event online; more details will be provided at a later date.

Monday, December 4th

12 – 2:00

Lunch is provided.

Boise Centre

CLE Credit will be given.

RSVP to Jenny Swajkoski at jss@mcananey.us by November 27th.