

Voluntary Resignation

Idaho Bar Commission Rule (I.B.C.R.) 305(e)(1) and (e)(3) provide:

RULE 305. Failure to Comply with Licensing Requirements.

(e) Resignation.

(1) An attorney who does not intend to meet licensing requirements may voluntarily resign his or her membership in the Bar by submitting a written request to the Executive Director on a form provided by the Bar. An attorney with pending disciplinary matters may not voluntarily resign without Bar Counsel approval.

(3) An attorney seeking admission to practice law in Idaho after his or her license has been resigned is required to apply for admission under I.B.C.R. Section II.

I, _____, hereby request to voluntarily resign my membership in the Idaho State Bar. I understand my voluntary resignation means the following:

I will no longer be a member of the Idaho State Bar, and

If I seek to be admitted to the practice of law in Idaho, I will be required to apply for admission to the Idaho State Bar under I.B.C.R. Section II which will include passing the Idaho bar examination or qualifying for reciprocal admission.

I also understand that my voluntary resignation will not be accepted without Bar Counsel's approval.

Dated this _____ day of _____, _____

Attorney Signature

Address

Idaho State Bar Membership Number